Discover Huge Underground Water Supply Along River

I READ with interest an article by Homer Bow in Wednesday's Evansville Courier.

The U. S. Department of the Interior has just revealed the discovery of "more than a trillion gallons of water" stored underground in sand and gravel fill along the Ohio river from Tell City, Ind., down on past Owensboro, Ky., Evansville and well past Shawneetown.

Says Bow: "The underground reservoir is termed by Department of the Interior geologists 'inexhaustible as long as the Ohio river flows.' With that statement its importance grows by leaps and bounds."

The Department of the Interior writes:

"It is the only source in this region of large supplies of water that are at once cool and of good quality year around. The reservoir has very large potentialities for future development. Water tested shows it is free from the turbidity, rapid chemical changes, taste and odor that are present where water supplies are drawn from the surface. This underground water averages 65 degrees in temperature the year round."

Bow points out that at Uniontown, Ky., across the Ohio to Mt. Vernon, Ind., the fill is more than 10 miles wide, then writes:

"Combining this vast water reservoir in the Tri-State with the growing use of river transportation, it does not require stretching the imagination to conceive the Tri-State possibly becoming a Mecca for industry, plus using pipeline to carry water to less fortunate areas, then points to the discovery of this gigantic reservoir when other areas of the nation are more and more facing a critical water supply."

It is all very interesting.

I ALSO NOTED with interest that the schools continue to do their part to make Halloween enjoyable to all.

An item titled "Halloween Teaching Needed" in the School Bulletin reads as follows:

"Before it is too late we need to get busy on our teachings on Halloween citizenship projects. Some of the worst behavior comes with the first wave of Halloween pranks. Some consideration of the principles of good citizenship now, with study directed to the modification of Halloween fun as related to such principles, will do much to keep vandalism in check and to direct the planning for the observance of Halloween into proper channels."

"As in previous years the schools will give time on the afternoon of Monday, Oct. 31, for school parades, parties and other school sponsored activities in observance of the Halloween season."

MAIL: I got a letter from George Pepper yesterday. He was the Air Force recruiting officer in Harrisburg about two years ago. Now he and wife, Hazel, and son, Billy, are living in Germany while he is doing his overseas service.

We knew the family well when the three were here and they definitely were assets to the community.

George writes that Oct. 15, which will be tomorrow, he and his family are starting a trip that will take them to Holland, Belgium, France, Switzerland and Bavaria and thru Germany. He points out that snow already has closed the pass into Italy and that country cannot be visited now until next summer.

Oak Ridge Workers Accept Contract

OAK RIDGE, Tenn. — Some 3,500 CIO Oil, Chemical and Atomic Workers accepted a three-year contract in a vote Thursday night, just 48 hours before their old contract expired.

The contract, reached in all-night sessions between union officials and the Union Carbide Nuclear Co. Wednesday, provides a 24-cent hourly hike spread over the three years. Another 1,000 atomic workers at Paducah, Ky., voted on the contract Thursday night.

Meanwhile, negotiations for another contract for 4,500 AFL atomic workers at two plants at Oak Ridge continued today in hopes of reaching a settlement before their deadline Saturday midnight. The AFL Atomic Trades and Labor Council, bargaining agent, is asking for a "substantial increase." Both AFL and CIO workers have been earning wages ranging from $1.68 to $2.50 per hour.

Fear Fighting May be Renewed Over Arms Deal

Czech Delivery of Weapons to Kill Basis for Peace

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States today faced the prospect that its hopes of preventing new warfare between the Arabs and Israel might go up in gun smoke with little notice.

A frank analysis given here of the Middle East situation is that Arab-Israeli tensions are the sharp since full-scale fighting raged in the area six years ago.

Tensions have been brought to a new peak by Egypt's decision to buy arms from the Communists. That decision is said authoritatively to have:

1. Raised the prospect that Israel might renew fighting to get the jump on Egypt before Czech arms are delivered in the near future.

2. All but killed the major American effort to create a basis for peace in the Middle East. That effort was to obtain an Israeli-Arab agreement to share the waters of the Jordan River.

3. Prompted new U. S. warnings to all Arab states against buying or trading with Russia for arms as Egypt did. The warning is to the effect that the Arabs can't shoot their way out of Middle Eastern problems, that they should withhold the fire and seek peaceful solutions to their quarrels with Israel.

Diplomatic officials have not given up all hope of avoiding new fighting in the Middle East. But they see the scales tipping dangerously in the direction of a new conflict now that Russia and its satellites are threatening to upset the balance of power in the region.

Egypt is blamed for suddenly sparking new tensions by dealing for Red arms. There is no backing out on the deal, it was learned, because Egypt already has deposited $2,870,000 in a Czech bank as a down payment on the arms.

Strategists here believe Israel has a temporary arms advantage which it may use before the Red arms are delivered to Egypt.

May Cut Water
Trouble may come first from the U. S.-sponsored Jordan Valley project. Experts believe that Israel could cut the Jordan waters within two weeks if the Arabs reject the sharing plan, which is believed doomed.

Israel also has threatened to force open the Straits of Aquaba, blocked by Egyptian artillery spotted on two small islands. This action could only be undertaken successfully by commando raids or bombing. Either action would pit Israeli and Egyptian forces against each other.

Use Tax Revenue By State Less Than Anticipated

SPRINGFIELD — Illinois' new use tax produced $341,419 — less than was anticipated — during its first month, Revenue Director Richard J. Lyons reported today.

Automobile purchases outside the state accounted for $70,954 of the total.

Purchases made out-of-state to avoid the Illinois sales tax were among the chief reasons for adoption of the use tax.

Lyons said there were two reasons for the lower-than-expected income from the use tax:

1. Many large users, such as railroads, had substantial inventories on hand when the tax became effective Aug. 1. These inventories are not taxable and it may take several months for them to be used up, Lyons said.

2. Many persons are holding back on their use tax payments while awaiting a test of the tax in the courts.

It is also possible, Lyons said, that the use tax is serving part of its purpose by discouraging out-of-state buying on which the tax must be paid.

The 2 1/2 cent state sales tax produced $2,480,786 during August, an increase of $4,999,633 over collections on August, 1954, transactions when the tax was 2 cents.

Both use and sales taxes on August transactions were collected in September.

Eisenhower Celebrates Birthday Surrounded by Gifts and Flowers

DENVER (AP)—President Eisenhower celebrated his 65th birthday today surrounded by gifts and flowers and with his medical bulletins containing word of another encouraging sign.

The chief executive, recuperating from a heart attack at Fitzsimons Army Hospital "awoke refreshed and in a happy birthday mood."

His doctors also reported for the first time since he entered the hospital Sept. 24 that "his cardiogram has stabilized at a satisfactory level."

Illinois Business Men Predict Prosperous 1956

CHICAGO — Illinois businessmen predict 1956 will be a prosperous year for the nation's economy. A panel of executives told the annual meeting of the Illinois Chamber of Commerce Thursday they expect the economy to continue to expand.

John C. Sharp, Chicago, president of Hotpoint Co., sounded a keynote when he said "If optimism is a sin then I'm the worst sinner in the world because I'm a confirmed optimist for the future."

Sharp said his business was up 25 per cent this year and he looks for another 20 per cent rise in 1956.

Plans Production Boost
John N. Marshall, president of Granite City Steel Co., said he plans another 30 per cent boost in production, which already has been tripled in recent years.

Marshall said there may be "little ups and downs" but "1956 as far as I can see is going to be just as good as 1955."

President Marshall S. Luthringer of Central Illinois Public Service Co., Springfield, said he believes a contraction of credit may cut down some on home construction, but 1956 nevertheless will be "a very good year indeed."

Luthringer predicted electricity sales will climb 8 per cent and gas sales 10 per cent next year.

Louis Ratzesberger Jr., president of the Illinois Canning Co. at Hoopston, has been elected president of the chamber, succeeding Waldo B. Ames, Chicago.

Six vice presidents named were Marc A. Beutell, Sycamore; Marshall S. Luthringer, Springfield; R. C. Rosencrance, Rockford; Giles Sullivan, Champaign; G. F. M. Ward, Mount Vernon, and Leslie B. Worthington, Chicago. Luthringer and Sullivan were reelected for second terms. The others are new to their posts.

Butler, Hall To Debate Tonight

CHICAGO — Paul M. Butler and Leonard W. Hall, the national chairmen of the Democratic and Republican parties, will square off in a "no holds barred" political debate tonight.

The party bigwigs were to be star speakers at an Illinois Chamber of Commerce convention dinner.

The chamber billed their face-to-face meeting as a "political preview of 1956... a no holds barred match between the top-ranking pros of the political league."

Mrs. Eisenhower joined the President at breakfast to begin showing him the multitude of gifts, flowers and messages that poured in from all the world.

Enjoys His Presents
The President especially enjoyed presents from his own family, the White House staff, the press corps, and messages and other gifts from the Cabinet and Republican state chairmen.

Mrs. Eisenhower gave the President a plastic easel for his use in painting while in his hospital bed.

The White House staff in Washington sent the traditional 65 American beauty roses, and the temporary White House staff gave him a garden of flowers for his Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

The morning bulletin on the President's condition said:

"The President had a good night's sleep of more than eight hours. He awoke feeling refreshed and cheerful. His condition continues to progress satisfactorily without complications."

Thus Mr. Eisenhower began his birthday, an occasion to be observed within the careful limits prescribed for a man recovering from a coronary thrombosis.

The President wanted to share his birthday with the more than 2,128 other patients and members of the staff at Fitzsimons Army Hospital, where he has been hospitalized since Sept. 24—the day he suffered a coronary thrombosis. Consequently, the other patients got pieces of "Ike's cake."

Cake For Patients
Actually, the bakers at Fitzsimons prepared a small cake which was to be presented to the President with his noon-day meal. They baked 24 other cakes from the same recipe and these will be served to the other patients.

Probably more indicative than any word from the President's doctors was the fact that Mrs. Eisenhower felt assured enough about her husband's condition Thursday afternoon to leave her eighth-floor room at the hospital for the first time since his illness.

Mrs. Robert Moore, former resident, dies at Champaign

Word has been received of the death of Mrs. Robert Moore, former resident of Harrisburg, who more recently had resided at 1501 South State street in Champaign.

She was the mother of Mrs. Clyde Gates, Champaign, formerly of this city.

Mrs. Moore was a member of the Saline County Farm Bureau and a charter member of the Home Bureau. She was also a former member of the McKinley Avenue Baptist church.

The body is being returned to Harrisburg and further information will be given later.

Mrs. Herman Evans, Former Resident Of Liberty, Dies

Mrs. Fannie Evans, 68, widow of Herman Evans, former resident of the Liberty community, died Thursday afternoon at the Methodist hospital in Indianapolis.

ANCHORAGE, Alaska (AP)—Cpl. G. David Schine, former aide to Sen. Joseph McCarthy (R-Wis.), will leave here Saturday to report to Ft. Dix, N. J., for processing out of the service.

Schine's discharge from the Army is "a routine matter," the Army said. His term of service is up.

"He has done a good job in Alaska," one military official said.

Faure Demands Confidence Vote On Algeria Policy

PARIS (AP)—Premier Edgar Faure, angry and weary after 14 hours of non-stop debate, cut through the National Assembly's monumental confusion today and demanded a formal vote of confidence on his Algerian policies.

The demand for a formal vote of confidence which automatically staked the life of his government move, but it gave him four days in reply to a head-on attack by his former Gaullist allies and a stubborn refusal by the Socialists to back him on Algeria though they had backed him five days ago on his government reforms for Morocco.

The real fight was over Faure's reforms in Morocco which the assembly approved early Sunday by a vote of 426 to 136.

The Gaullists were bitterly opposed to Faure's attempts to install a three-man throne council in Morocco with representatives of the freedom-seeking nationalists.

It was on this issue that the Gaullists were trying to wreck his government on the Algerian vote.

City Police Redouble Efforts to Keep Down Halloween Vandalism

City police are redoubling their efforts to keep down vandalism and pranks as Halloween nears, Chief of Police Ross Lane said today.

Chief Lane said there already had been cases of damage reported to him and that in addition to the city police car, one other car is being used to patrol the residential sections looking for possible vandalism.

Anybody caught doing anything irregular will be taken to the police station and his parents called in, Lane said. The parent will be responsible for any damage done and any fine assessed, he added.

Senators Hit Jury-Tapping by Federal Judges

Eastland, Jenner Hint Impeachment May be Proposed

WASHINGTON (AP)—Two irate senators pressed today toward possible impeachment of federal judges who authorized jury eavesdropping.

Chairman James O. Eastland (D-Miss) and Sen. William E. Jenner (R-Ind) hinted at impeachment proceedings when they said they would urge the Senate internal security subcommittee to send the transcript of its two-day hearings on jury-tapping to the House Judiciary committee.

Under the Constitution, the House institutes impeachment proceedings against judges. If the House votes for impeachment, the case is tried by the Senate, sitting as a court.

Impeachment Hinted

Rep. Emanuel Celler (D-N.Y.), chairman of the House committee receiving the Senate subcommittee transcript, said he would "not hesitate to recommend impeachment proceedings if he decides the matter 'rises to the importance of impeachment.'"

Eastland and Jenner also promised "severe punishment" for future invasions of a jury's secrecy by eavesdropping or recording. They said they would introduce legislation to ban such activity next year.

Witnesses testified at the internal security subcommittee hearing that Chief Judge Orrie Phillips of the 10th U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals and District Judge Delmas Hill authorized a University of Chicago research team, studying the jury system under a Ford Foundation grant, to plant hidden microphones in a Wichita, Kan., jury room. The researchers recorded jury deliberations of six cases in May, 1954.

Attorney Defended Action

Paul R. Kitch, prominent Wichita attorney who promoted the recording idea and said he "sold" the University of Chicago researchers on it, testified that two and perhaps three other judges had also granted permission for use of the secret microphones in their courts, though this was never done. He said their purpose was to lead to improvements in the jury system, to combat unfavorable publicity and loss of confidence in the jury system, and to find a better way of making sure that jurors understood a judge's instructions.

Cuba, with 53 votes, and Australia, with 42, were elected on the first ballot to succeed Brazil and New Zealand, respectively, on the council next Jan. 1.

The assembly also decided to postpone elections for vacancies on the Economic and Social Council and the Trusteeship Council.

Observers foresaw a busy weekend of "horse-trading" involving seats on the other councils as Russia and the U. S. sought to nail down a majority for their respective Security Council candidates.

Ask $65,000 Damages From Crash Fatal to 4

A damage suit asking for $65,000 which resulted from a crash of two automobiles in which four persons died was on file today in circuit court.

The complaint was filed by the Shawneetown law firm, Bartley, Karber and Hale, for Robert H. Patton of Evansville. Patton is the administrator of the estates of his wife, Emma Lou, and his small son, Dennis Ray, both killed in the crash.

Also killed were the two occupants of the other car, George Gross and his wife, Nona. The Grosses resided near Eldorado.

Named defendant in the action are Ralph Bean, administrator of the estate of Mr. Gross, and R. H. Tanner, administrator of the state of his wife.

The complaint points out that the collision occurred around 2:30 p. m. Oct. 17, 1954, about two miles north of Eldorado on Route 142.

It says that Patton was driving south and Gross north and charges that Gross drove his car across the black line into Patton's lane of traffic.

Patton asks $20,000 for the death of his wife, $20,000 for the death of his son, and $25,000 for his injuries, the loss of his car and for loss of income resulting from his incapacity.

In another lawsuit on file today $5,000 is sought from the Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Co. The petition, filed by Judith Ann Bruce by Atty. Harry L. McCabe, says that Judith Ann was hit by a Halliburton truck driven by Cecil Neff at Route 45 and Jefferson street near Eldorado on May 26.

Permanent Seals Ordered for Parts Of Orient Mine 3

WALTONVILLE, Ill. (AP)—A state mine inspector Thursday ordered permanent seals for parts of the fire-stricken Orient Mine No. 3.

The decision was made after mine inspector Harold Richard entered the mine to test air behind temporary seals set up about 20 hours after the blaze broke out Tuesday.

Richmond, who donned an oxygen mask and approached the fire area, said the air in the burning part of the mine still contained "more oxygen than we like."

Officials of the Freeman Coal Mining Corp., owners of the mine, said they hope to resume operations in about a week.

U. S., Russia Deadlocked on UN Balloting

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP)—Russia and the United States wound up in a deadlock today in the United Nations General Assembly, with neither able to obtain a required two-thirds majority vote for its candidate for a Security Council seat.

After six inconclusive ballots, Assembly President Jose Maza adjourned the meeting, on the suggestion of Britain and Russia. Both suggested that the assembly should resume its voting next Tuesday.

Russia dropped its candidate, Poland, after five ballots and spread the word that it would accept Yugoslavia as an "Eastern European" candidate. This was ironic, since Yugoslavia's election over Soviet-backed Czechoslovakia in 1949 was the first break in the 1946 "gentleman's agreement" that one non-permanent council seat should go to a Soviet-bloc country.

The Philippines, campaigning strenuously under the leadership of fiery Brig. Gen. Carlos P. Romulo with the backing of U. S. Ambassador Henry Cabot Lodge Jr., remained in the running.

The Philippines came within one vote of election when 38 countries balloted for it on the third round. At that point, 39 votes were required for election.

The election procedure requires a two-thirds majority of countries present and voting. Abstentions may change the number of votes required for election from ballot to ballot.

Cuba, with 53 votes, and Australia, with 42, were elected on the first ballot to succeed Brazil and New Zealand, respectively, on the council next Jan. 1.

The assembly also decided to postpone elections for vacancies on the Economic and Social Council and the Trusteeship Council.

Britain Expects Announcement On Plans Soon

Speculate Royal Romance Will End in Marriage

LONDON (AP)—Princess Margaret went to dinner at Windsor with RAF Group Capt. Peter Townsend tonight, giving open encouragement to the expectation that they are going to marry.

With no official guidance, the press and public were swept with speculation that the reported royal romance soon would end in marriage.

The royal family deliberately stood aside and said nothing. But a statement was believed due soon.

The news spread like wildfire after Townsend's call on Margaret Thursday night at Clarence House. It was a move seemingly calculated to prepare the people for a royal wedding announcement.

Margaret's worldly brother-in-law, the Duke of Edinburgh, was reported to be the cupid who suggested the get-together—their first in two years.

Weekend in the Country
A source close to the court reported:

"He (the Duke) told Margaret, 'You haven't seen this man in two years. Why don't you see him and see how you feel?'"

They met for nearly two hours. When he emerged, Townsend said nothing.

But the morning newspaper headlines brought crowds of curious to stand and stare outside Clarence House and the building at No. 19 Lowndes Square where Townsend stayed.

When Townsend emerged eight policemen held back the staring, interested throng. Most were women and some called, "Good luck." Grave and unsmiling, he said, "Thank you."

Newsman followed him in wild pursuit to the country home of Mrs. John Wills, Margaret's cousin and intermediary in their crisis.

Expect Announcement Soon
The Wills estate is close by Windsor Great Park, along whose bridle paths he first taught Margaret to ride and where he apparently won her love.

In slipping the princess and Queen Mother Elizabeth away from Clarence House, police resorted to an old stratagem.

A big black car drew up at the front door of the mansion. The crowd of 500 reporters and speculators surged forward to see who was in it. As they did, the princess and her mother scooted out a back door and sped away through a little-used exit. Their destination was not known.

Townsend's summons to see the woman who crumbled his career at court represented the most decisive single development in a story of royal romances since Edward VIII quit his throne in 1936 to marry the American divorcee, Wallis Warfield Simpson.

Townsend, exiled to Brussels in July, 1953, as air attaché when rumors of a romance spread through London, returned Wednesday for a vacation. The princess returned Thursday morning, the queen mother Thursday afternoon to be at the side of her daughter.

If Townsend's exile in Brussels amounted to a cooling-off period, the Clarence House meeting was a crucial test. It was her first look in two years at the man it would be so difficult for her to marry. She is of the royal blood and her sister is queen and defender of the Anglican faith.

And the Anglican Church refuses to countenance marriage of a divorced person while his former mate lives. The queen therefore could not approve Margaret's marriage. But when Margaret turned 25 last Aug. 26 she became able to marry without the queen's consent.

Rescue Three RAF Flyers from Sea; No Hope for Seven Others

LONDONDERRY, Ireland (AP)—Rescuers plucked the bodies of three Royal Air Force crewmen from the storm-tossed Atlantic today after their bomber crashed during a search for a sinking trawler.

The bodies were found floating in the sea by the Canadian frigate Preston and the British frigate Wizard, two of the four ships called out to search for the crashed Neptune patrol bomber.

RAF officials said there was little hope for the Neptune's other seven crew members.

Murder in Haiti

THE STORY: A treasure cruise, an international man of mystery and a pretty girl already make things interesting to Robert Deane, American criminologist, who is associated with the British detective Bertrand Lynch. The two detectives are to guard Viggo Sand, the yacht owner. But someone has just thrown a knife at Mr. Sand.

IV

Belatedly, I leapt to action. After all I was the yacht dick. I sped round the corner of the cabin housing. The stern deck, not surprisingly, was empty. Taking its rubber-tread steps three at a time, I leapt up the ladder-like stairway to the upper boat deck. Though, up there, there were many shadows and places of concealment, I contrived to look in all of them. No one there. In another moment I had circled the promenade deck, too, and was back where I had started. I was puffing, perhaps, just a little more than necessary. "I found no trace of the assailant," I reported.

What a silly way to talk. "I shall, however, at once consult with Mr. Lynch," I declaimed. "I am confident we shall lay him by the heels." That sounded even worse!

Sand stared at me and moved in a ponderous nod. "Mr. Deane, you will be good enough to accompany me to my cabin?"

Viggo Sand was shaking. Mr. Sand, I perceived, was good and scared.

The trouble was that in all my life I had known, or even known of, only one complete master of the difficult art of knife-throwing. That master was Bertrand Lynch. He had learned it, he once told me, in Marseilles. He was convinced that for his needs, it was the perfect weapon. Like his peculiar trade, it was silent, secret. And almost impossible to associate with anyone so invincibly British as himself.

To my surprise, Lily Wyndam was still on deck. "A gallant pair, I must say!" "Who? Me?" "You're not a pair, big as you are. I mean you and Viggo. Darting off like that leaving me alone with a murderer at large. I think modern men are just dicky!" "I'm terribly sorry. I just didn't think—"

"Never mind. There's no one on this barge who knows me well enough to murder me. Except Viggo. And I had my eye on him."

"Yes?" I urged.

"In a minute they bundled Braun back into his cabin and then the watchman went and got Reg Dibble. Dibble, as you may or may not know, is ever at Viggo's right hand. Reg at least used some glimmering of sense and went and fetched the innocuous Norwegian, Dr. Lund, Viggo's Royal Physician. Dr. Lund's cabin is just between yours and mine."

"There was some very hushed and whispery coming and going while, I suppose, Braun got himself swabbed off and tied up."

Cardinal Bans Wedding Marches in Chicago Churches

CHICAGO (AP)—Samuel Cardinal Stritch has banned the Wagner and Mendelssohn wedding marches and "O Promise Me" from marriage ceremonies in Chicago Catholic churches.

The cardinal, in a mandatory order issued Thursday, also excluded, "I Love You Truly," "Because," and the two most popular versions of "Ave Maria" by Schubert and Bach-Gounod.

The ban is effective Nov. 27 and is based on the recommendation of the archdiocesan commission of sacred music.

The commission based its report on whether the selections had "the essential quality of all sacred music—namely sanctity," the cardinal said.

The Wagner and Mendelssohn wedding marches, traditionally played when the bride enters the church and when the married couple leaves, were written for the operas "Lohengrin" and the suite "Midsummer Nights Dream," the commission noted.

Since they were composed expressly for the theater, the commission said, they "therefore obviously lack the first requisite of sacred music—sanctity."

"O Promise Me" was ruled out because it came from an opera, "I Love You Truly" on grounds that it is "profane," and "Because" because it is "spectacular."

Bond Firm, Toll Road Group To Meet Oct. 25

NEW YORK (AP)—Glore, Forgan & Co., heading a syndicate planning to offer 415 million dollars of Illinois toll road bonds, announced Thursday it will hold a meeting Oct. 25 with the Illinois Toll Road Commission at which its proposal for the bonds will be signed, if acceptable.

James Jameson of Glore, Forgan's Chicago municipal bond department, said that if the issue is signed actual construction of the 481 miles of toll highways will start in April, 1956.

Jameson said Glore, Forgan will mail during the weekend "a letter of instruction" to the other underwriters giving full particulars.

He also announced a price meeting will be held here Oct. 24 to determine a coupon.

Gov. William G. Stratton (R-Ill.) also told underwriters and reporters at an information meeting here that it may be necessary to triple the amount in a very few years.

Stratton said the new road, scheduled for completion by Jan. 1, 1959, would serve nearly six million persons in northeastern Illinois. He said the state's road construction plans are proceeding "on a sound fiscal basis," and there is no question of where the revenue must come from.

The road links Chicago with Rockford, Ill., Elgin, and Aurora, and will serve as a further artery in the country's chain of toll roads extending from New England to the Iowa and Wisconsin boundaries.

St. Louis Transit Workers Vote To End Strike

ST. LOUIS (AP)—AFL bus and street car operators gave up their four-day strike against the Public Service Co. today and voted to return to work immediately.

The decision was announced by union leaders after a two-hour closed meeting of the membership.

It came after the state of Missouri invoked penalty clauses of its utility anti-strike law and asked the courts for damages of $10,000 a day from the union.

Transit vehicles were expected to begin running again as soon as the drivers reported to their divisions.

Prior to the meeting, the executive committee of the union promised state officials they would do everything in their power to get the men back to work.

Illinois Chamber of Commerce Warned of Teacher, Classroom Shortage

CHICAGO (AP)—School experts told the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce today that the state faces critical shortages of classrooms and teachers and must get the most out of its school tax dollar.

Authorities on teacher recruitment, school building, financing and other board of education problems participated in a "School Problems Symposium" moderated by Len H. Small, vice president of the Kankakee Daily Journal Co. and director of the ISCC.

Vernon L. Nickell, state superintendent of public instruction, told the businessmen that the shortage of qualified teachers in Illinois elementary schools is expected to mount to 12,500 by 1960.

He said the teacher shortage will increase rapidly in high schools and colleges as the wave of "war babies" hits the secondary and college levels. Nickell pointed to a rapidly ascending birthrate—from 116,000 in 1932 to 215,000 in 1954—as primarily responsible for the ballooning enrollments.

The "Critical Areas" Nickell called mathematics, science and technology "critical areas" in education. He said the Russians are training 2½ times as many engineers and twice as many scientists as the United States today and said parents should encourage their children to study in these fields if they have an aptitude for such subjects.

The state will need an additional 1,700 elementary school classrooms each year to take care of the increasing number of pupils, State Sen. Davis Davis (R-Bloomington) told the chamber. And Davis, who is vice chairman of the Illinois School Problems Commission, said that estimate does not include necessary replacements of old school houses.

Davis said that 63 hard-pressed school districts, which have used up their available bonding power under state law, will be short 1,720 classrooms by 1957.

He predicted a 199-million-dollar increase in school building and operating costs in Illinois in the next 10 years. Davis said the lack of uniformity in assessments is a "serious contributing factor" to the crisis in school finances.

The president of the National School Boards Assn., attorney O. H. Roberts Jr. of Evansville, Ind., warned that legislative restrictions preventing solution of school financing problems at the local level must be removed if federal aid to education is to be provided.

Calendar Of Meetings

The Soldiers for Jesus Sunday school class of the Dorrisville Social Brethren church will have a Halloween party tonight at 7 o'clock in the church basement. Each member is asked to take a half dozen sandwiches. The hostess committee also warns members they will be fined if they are not masked.

The Land Street Church of God is sponsoring a bake sale Saturday beginning at 9 a. m. at the Montgomery Ward Catalog office.

The Mt. Pleasant Baptist pastor and choir will be at Bethel A. M. E. church Sunday at 3 p. m. for installation of officers. The public is invited.

Construction of the world famous Washington monument in Washington, D. C., was completed by the Army Engineers.

Charges Scandal In Stassen Failure To Purchase Coal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Robert H. Mollohan (D-W. Va.) charged today that Harold E. Stassen's handling of the foreign aid coal program while he headed the Foreign Operations Administration "adds up to a national scandal."

Mollohan charged Stassen with "loose and irresponsible mismanagement" of the program, which he said involved an election promise to buy coal to relieve unemployment in coal-producing states.

During the 1954 congressional campaign, Mollohan said, Stassen announced in a Denver, Colo., address that the government would buy 10-million tons of coal at a cost of 150-million dollars from the hard-pressed coal states.

Only 1,130,000 tons actually were authorized to be bought at a cost of $34,200,000, Mollohan said.

He said Stassen's successor, John Hollister, director of the International Cooperation Administration which succeeded the FOA, has now called the program off entirely.

Dogs bought by the Army must be from one to two years old, 22 to 28 inches high at the shoulder, and must weigh at least 60 pounds.

Wisconsin Meets Southern California Tonight to Open College Grid Week End

By United Press
Southern California and Wisconsin, Rose Bowl rivals three seasons back, clash under the lights at Los Angeles tonight in a big intercollegiate game that opens a weekend of college football that otherwise will be devoted mainly to conference games.

Southern Cal's Trojans won that 1953 bowl battle, 7-0, for the Pacific Coast conference's only victory to date in the nine years of its bowl pact with the Big Ten.

But this time the odds-makers figure Wisconsin, unbeaten, untied, and ranked eighth nationally despite the graduation of fullback Alan Ameche, will win. They rate the Badgers a six-point choice over the speedier, once-beaten, 19th-ranked Trojans.

A tight battle is expected in the only other major game on tonight's all-light program, a Skyline conference battle in which Denver, the host, is a two-point pick over Utah.

The big Saturday program finds the nationwide emphasis switching for the first time this season from intersectional games to conference warfare.

"Big Three" Favorites
Michigan, Maryland, and Oklahoma, the current "Big Three" in the national football rankings, set the style for the day by sticking within their own league. And all three are heavy favorites—Michigan by 21 points in its Big Ten opener against three-times-beaten Northwestern; Maryland by 21 over North Carolina in the Atlantic Coast conference; and Oklahoma by 28 to score its 23rd straight victory as it opens its Big Seven season against Kansas.

However, Notre Dame, the nation's No. 4 team and not a conference member, is the favorite in the nationally-televised "game of the week." The unbeaten, untied, unscored-on Irish invade East Lansing, Mich., to face Michigan State.

Georgia Tech, Texas Christian, and UCLA, ranked 5-6-7 nationally, will be occupied with important conference matters. Tech is a seven-point choice over Auburn; Texas Christian is a 10-point South-west conference favorite as it shoots Jimmy Swink and Co. at Texas A & M; UCLA, last year's national champion, is favored by "only" 19 over Pacific Coast conference rival Stanford.

Unbeaten, untied, unscored-on Navy, is a 13-point favorite over Penn State.

Duke at Ohio State
Duke visits Ohio State at Columbus in Saturday's biggest intersectional game and the Blue Devils are the only team in the top 10 that is an underdog—but only by one point. In other major intersectionals, Baylor and Washington are rated even; Wyoming is favored by seven over Tulsa; Boston College by 10 over Detroit; Pittsburgh 14 over Nebraska; and Indiana 20 over Villanova.

Here's how some of the other big conference games are figured: Unbeaten Yale seven over Cornell in the Ivy league, where Harvard is picked by only one point over Columbia; Alabama three over Tennessee; Kentucky seven over Mississippi State, and Mississippi 13 over Tulane in the Southeastern Conference; Wake Forest seven over North Carolina State in the Atlantic Coast conference; unbeaten West Virginia 21 over William & Mary in the Southern; Iowa seven over Purdue and Illinois seven over Minnesota in the Big Ten; Colorado Seven over Kansas State and Missouri seven over Iowa State in the Big Seven; Houston 13 over Oklahoma A & M in the Missouri Valley; Texas three over Arkansas and Rice six over SMU in the Southwest; Oregon three over California and Washington State seven over Idaho in the Pacific Coast conference.

Bull Dogs to Face Revised Orphan Lineup

The Harrisburg Bull Dogs probably will find a revised Orphan backfield when they meet the Centralia gridders tonight in a very important South Seven conference game.

"After losing three out of four it is time we're doing something," Orphan Coach Jimmie Evers told a Centralia Sentinel reporter.

In practice this week he shifted Don (Tank) Richards, a guard, into the backfield and plans to alternate the husky senior with curly Ron (Butch) Murray, a sophomore, at tailback.

Larry McCreavey, senior full-back, retains his starting role and Paul Kessler moves back in as a starting halfback. Danny Laughlin, senior, has been moved from tailback to blocking back.

Halfback Jim Dorris shifts to right end and Jerry Ritter, end, shifts to the guard spot to fill the gap created by Richards' shift to the backfield.

Evers, in the article, said that the club should pick up considerable running strength with Richards and Murray since it adds weight and drive to the ground offense borne chiefly by McCreavey so far.

The coach pointed out that the new backfield combination lacks a passer but commented: "We haven't had any passing anyway." But he was quick to add that "with Dorris at right end we're not bad off, because he's the one guy we've got who can keep right on shooting all day for $8 per cock and $5 per hen. There are lots of bits of information in the folder. Anyone interested can write to—Beaver Prairie Game Preserve, 650 North 3rd Street, Breese, Illinois, for complete details.

Lopat, Joost Released by Orioles, Red Sox

By United Press
Ed Lopat and Eddie Joost had their careers—and that's just about all—left of their big league careers today.

The veteran pitcher and shortstop, both of whom overcame physical shortcomings to become stars, were released Thursday by the Baltimore Orioles and the Boston Red Sox.

The Orioles announced that they were asking waivers on the 37-year-old Lopat in order to give him his unconditional release. The Red Sox meanwhile, announced they had given the 39-year-old Joost his outright release. It'll be a surprise if either catches on with another big league club.

Acquired from the Chicago White Sox in 1948 on Joe DiMaggio's recommendation, Lopat appeared in five World Series for the New York Yankees and compiled a classic record of 4-1.

A Star Infielder
Joost, a star infielder despite the handicap of wearing glasses, was a weak hitter when he broke in with the Cincinnati Redlegs in 1936. After nine seasons in the National League he dropped back into the minors in 1946 but then returned to the big time with the Philadelphia Athletics.

With a revised stance Joost became a dangerous long-ball hitter in the American League for seven years. He then managed the Athletics before they were transferred to Kansas City.

The Red Sox picked him up as a free agent last spring but he hit only .193 in 56 games for them this year.

The Red Sox also announced the transfer of catcher Guy Morton to Louisville in the American League and the purchase of eight minor leaguers. They were shortstop Don Buddin, pitcher Jerry Casale and outfielders Marty Keough, Bob Jenkins and Gordon Windhorn from Louisville and pitchers Joe Albanese and Roy Timney and catcher Gerald Zimmerman from Greensboro.

Redlegs Announce Deal
The Cincinnati Redlegs also announced a deal—the purchase of former minor league strikeout marvel Bill Kennedy from Seattle in the Pacific Coast League where he had a 1.91 ERA in 51 games. Kennedy, now 34, struck out 456 batters in the Coastal Plain League in 1946.

The world champion Brooklyn Dodgers called up seven players from their minor league system and sent catcher Dixie Howell to St. Paul. Called up were first-year Jim Gentile, pitcher Bill Harris and outfielder Bob Wilson from Montreal; shortstop Jasper Spears and catcher Mike Napoli from St. Paul and outfielder Dick Williams and third-baseman Dick Gray from Fort Worth.

The Kansas City Athletics purchased pitchers Carl Duser and Allen Romberger from Columbus in Thursday's other deal.

Ricketts to Play With College All-Stars

NEW YORK —Dick Ricketts, six-foot, seven-inch former star for Duquesne, has signed to play with the College All-Stars against the New York Knickerbockers at Madison Square Garden on Oct. 3. Ricketts will be playing for his former coach, Duddy Moore, pilot of the All-Stars.

In 1954 Nebraska ranked fourth in the country in the number of growers actively engaged in the production of certified seed. Last year there were 1,430 producers of the high grade seed.

Looking At Sports

By BILL MELTON

Going into tonight's game with Eldorado, Carmi Coach Don Shroyer's football teams have rolled up a record of 26 victories, 11 losses and two ties over a plus four-year period.

Shroyer's 1951 team had three wins, five losses and two ties. The following year he had a 5-3 record and in 1953 his team went unbeaten in nine tries. Last year Carmi suffered a lone loss in eight outings. To date in 1955 Carmi is 2-2.

Ridgway high school has a 19-game basketball schedule, plus two tournaments and Coach Bob Dallas would like to add another game, either for Nov. 4 or 8. As the schedule now stands Ridgway opens against Shawneetown Nov. 15 in a Greater Egyptian conference game and Dallas would like to see his team in action a week earlier against non-conference competition.

Have received a folder headed "There's a Great Pheasant Shooting Near You—And No Bag Limit." Even though I am not a hunter, it sounds interesting to me and to a hunter it must sound super. The hunting preserve, known as the Beaver Prairie Game Preserve, is located near Breese, Ill. There is a minimum daily hunting fee of $13.50 that entitles the hunter to two pheasants—one cock and one hen. From then on you can keep right on shooting all day for $8 per cock and $5 per hen. There are lots of bits of information in the folder. Anyone interested can write to—Beaver Prairie Game Preserve, 650 North 3rd Street, Breese, Illinois, for complete details.

THIS DAY IN ILLINOIS SPORTS HISTORY. Eleven Years Ago, Oct. 14, 1944—Claude "Buddy" Young rambled for touchdowns the first two times he carried the ball and had an amazing 19.9 yards-per-try average from scrimmage as Illinois routed Iowa 40-6 in Memorial Stadium. Young skirted right end on the first scrimmage play of the afternoon and raced 65 yards to the end zone. The next time he carried the ball, a quick opener sprang him loose for 30 yards and another TD. John Orr, Don Greenway, Chuck Starks, Walt Kersulis, and Cy Perkins also contributed touchdowns for the Illini.

Did you know that the University of Illinois was the first school to stage a homecoming? On Oct. 15, 1910 our state university started something—homecoming—that is now a part of the school year for every university or college, practically all high schools and even some grade schools have homecoming celebrations. The Illini won this first homecoming football game, defeating the University of Chicago 3-0.

More than 150 former varsity letter winners at the University of Illinois will gather for the annual "Men's banquet" this evening in Champaign. Special guests at the dinner will include President David Dobbs Henry of the U. of I., Ike Armstrong, director of athletics at Minnesota and Bob Zupke, retired Illini football coach.

Floyd Patterson Wins First Round KO

LOS ANGELES — Floyd Patterson, the No. 1 light heavyweight contender from Brooklyn, N. Y., needed less than three minutes to convince local fight fans that he is the hottest young fighter in the boxing game today. The 20-year-old Patterson belted out Cal Brad of Los Angeles in 2:58 of the first round Thursday night for his eighth straight KO this year.

Bob Dallas, In First Year as Ridgway Coach, Has Only 3 Seniors on Squad

Bob Dallas, in his first year as coach at Ridgway high school is expecting underclassmen to carry a lot of the load—at least numerically speaking—during the 1955-56 basketball season.

His first eleven includes six sophomores, a junior, one freshman and three seniors.

The senior players will provide the backbone of the team, but the other two starters plus all the reserves will come from younger players.

Gary Dillard at 6-2, Don Crayne at 6-0 and John Mills 5-10 are the seniors. Coach Dallas described Mills as a good outside player, Crayne as being a fine set shot and Dillard as his "down the center" man and rebounder.

The other boys having the inside track on starting spots are Gauen and Ambrose, both 5-10 sophomores.

Others singled out for special mention were Don Goss, Ernie Clifford, Tommy Jones, Don Sanders, Jerry Meyer and George Shephard.

More than 50 candidates reported for the first practice, but the squad has been reduced to 32 and eight or ten more will be cut from the group within the next day or so, Dallas stated recently.

Four Airmen Killed In Hillside Crash

RIVERSIDE, Calif. — Air Force authorities today investigated the hillside crash of a B47 jet bomber in which four airmen were killed.

The crash occurred shortly after the medium bomber took off on an evaluation mission from its home field, March Air Force base, about 10 miles from here. The plane was flying on instruments in a heavy fog but Air Force spokesmen said the fog was not responsible for the crash Thursday night.

Salvation Army Drive Workers Urged to Report

Chairman John W. Biggers of the Salvation Army drive for funds today urged volunteer workers to do their soliciting and get their reports in as soon as possible.

He said there are still a number who have not yet made their reports.

Right now, he said, the drive has resulted in about $3,000 in cash and $600 in merchandise. He said he expected from $100 to $200 more to come in from Eldorado and from $500 to $600 in from Harrisburg.

People not contacted can turn in their money to the Salvation Army post here or call 871, the Salvation Army number, and junior police will pick up the donations between 4 and 6 p. m.

He presented the Salvation Army budget form, which showed the Salvation Army expenses July 4, 1954, to June 26, 1955, were $8,388.68. It also showed that of the income received $1,885 was sent here by the St. Louis division office to carry on the work.

It showed that last year's drive brought in $3,356.63 when $5,038 had been anticipated to carry on the planned work.

European Women Over Advertised, Bob Mitchum Says

By ALINE MOSBY
United Press Hollywood Writer
HOLLYWOOD — European women are over advertised Robert Mitchum, world traveler, decided today.

This is one observation of foreign culture the out-spoken actor has to make about Europe after a 4½ month tour of the continent.

Mitchum insists he enjoyed his sojourn while he starred in a full-length movie version of the popular TV series, "Foreign Intrigue."

Yet he has a few other well-honed remarks about Europe that might quiver the travel agencies across the pond.

He thinks Europe is noisy, the citizens money-grabbers (except in Spain), the food not so fabulous, the beaches dirty and the dry cleaning terrible.

"The prettiest girls are right here in the United States," the traveler said as he slouched, eyes three-fourths closed, in his chair.

"A lot of good figures over there. The girls in Europe are not so nervous about girdles. But I didn't see any good-looking girls."

"You look down the Champs Elysses in Paris and a pretty woman is one of two things — a prostitute or an American, some Smith College tourists."

"In Genoa they were refurbishing the sewer system outside my hotel and the Italians were talking at the top of their cultured baritone voices."

In Paris I could hear somebody rattling cups outside our hotel door. It turned out to be the cafe downstairs. You can hear everybody."

"I came home to California to get a good night's sleep."

"People were always short-changing my wife," he continued.

"Except in Spain. They don't cheat. They're too proud."

The Swedes are kind of smug and superior. The Spaniards are gracious and wonderful."

Iowa Governor Urges 4-Point Farm Program

DES MOINES — The governor of the nation's leading farm state today recommended that the federal government buy up surplus livestock and stockpile food to "correct a critical farm situation."

Gov. Leo A. Hoegh of Iowa, in his opening speech before a Midwest Republican governors farm price conference, outlined a four-point program to free farmers of "their present farm squeeze."

Govs. Victor Anderson of Nebraska, Joe Foss of South Dakota, Fred Hall of Kansas and George Craig of Indiana participated in the "panel discussion" with Hoegh and state and federal farm officials.

Hoegh said that as of Oct. 3, hog prices in central Iowa, center of the nation's hog-raising area, stood at 75 per cent of parity. Beef cattle were 74 per cent of parity and lambs 80 per cent, he said.

"Farm-led and farm-fed"

"National prosperity cannot continue without a healthy farm economy," Hoegh warned. "In the last century or more, every great national economic upheaval has been farm-led and farm-fed."

Although he did not refer to them, within recent weeks a series of "grass roots" meetings have been held in southern Iowa and neighboring states to protest sagging farm income. Thousands of farmers have met in sales barns to hear speeches that even include talk of a general farm "strike" to force prices upward.

"There is no excuse for us to allow so-called agricultural surpluses to depress our markets, and oppress our farmers," Hoegh said.

Among his suggestions was a recommendation the U. S. Department of Agriculture buy up "quality livestock" to bolster prices.

Another suggestion was that the nation stockpile food for emergencies. Hoegh told the conference there is not more than a year's supply of any commodity on hand and the present supply of corn could be consumed in less than four months.

Says Food Our Best Weapon
"Stockpiles of food are our nation's best weapon in an unsteady world," he said.

Hoegh also urged an increase in the per capita consumption of farm communities and the establishment of "land banks."

Parcels of land would be set aside for use in case of drought or a greatly expanded need.
